We cannot make the recital possible without the help of all of you! This year we are asking for TWO parent volunteers from each class for ages 6 and under. Please email us with which show (10am, 12:30pm, or 4pm) and class your child is in if you are interested! If your child requires the use of an EPI pen for their allergies, you MUST volunteer.

Please label all of your child's items. Snack, water, shoes (on the inside). WE ARE PEANUT FREE. The show order, as well as specific details about checking in and checking out your child will be emailed May 28th. This will also inform you on where to check your child in (Balcony vs. Greenroom). There is no coming to give your dancer food, fixing their hair/makeup, or just coming to say 'Hi' during the show. We promise they are in good hands! Students age 5 and above are expected to stay for the whole show and to perform in the finale. Special requests need to be approved a week before the recital and forms filled out.
Backstage:	Only dancers and volunteers are allowed backstage. This will cut down on confusion and help the students to remain focused. You will be able to pick up your dancer from the greenroom after they perform the finale. Parents of 3 year olds can pick up their child after their individual performance, but will need to purchase them a ticket if they want to bring them to the audience to watch. This year we are asking for TWO parent volunteers from each class for ages under 6. Please email us with which show you are in (10am, 12:30pm, or 4pm) and which class your child is in if you are interested! Show Length:	The 10am show will be under an hour and the afternoon shows will be about 2-2.5 hours each. Please be respectful of the rest of the audience and the performers by using professional theater etiquette. Again, Students age 5 and above are expected to stay for the whole show and to perform in the finale. We will not be releasing students 5 and up without previous permission at any point during the show. Trophies will be handed out in your child's regular dance class the week after the recital. We will have regular classes the week following the recital.

If you would like a physical DVD, they can be purchased at: www.ACutAboveLa.com. You may videotape and take pictures during rehearsal.
